"Tell me Your name," I challenged Christ.
"Were You a prophet, saint supreme?
Did You wear true flesh and blood?
Are You that which we call God?
Or but a hope, a sigh,
A thing compacted of man's dream?"
"I will declare Myself," said Christ,
"When you confess your name and station."
Easy terms. I thought and thought
But still the sum of me as nought.
"A dying sinner, I."
And straight He told His name, "Salvation."

Gk101 – Introduction to Hebrew and Greek – Spring 2018

- ¹⁸ Against all hope, Abraham in hope believed and so became the father of many nations, just as it had been said to him, “So shall your offspring be.” ¹⁹ Without weakening in his faith, he faced the fact that his body was as good as dead—since he was about a hundred years old—and that Sarah’s womb was also dead. ²⁰ Yet he did not waver through unbelief regarding the promise of God, but was strengthened in his faith and gave glory to God, ²¹ being fully persuaded that God had power to do what he had promised. ²² This is why “it was credited to him as righteousness.” ²³ The words “it was credited to him” were written not for him alone, ²⁴ but also for us, to whom God will credit righteousness—for us who believe in him who raised Jesus our Lord from the dead. ²⁵ He was delivered over to death for our sins and was raised to life for our justification.
