Feed my Lambs

“O God, let the words of my mouth offer hope and confidence and give fresh assurance. But only when my life reflects Your Word”

Jack L. Moore

“When they had finished eating, Jesus said to Simon Peter, “Simon son of John, do you love me more than these?” “Yes, Lord,” he said, “you know that I love you.” Jesus said, “Feed my lambs.” Again Jesus said, “Simon son of John, do you love me?” He answered, “Yes, Lord, you know that I love you.” Jesus said, “Take care of my sheep.” The third time he said to him, “Simon son of John, do you love me?” Peter was hurt because Jesus asked him the third time, “Do you love me?” He said, “Lord, you know all things; you know that I love you.” Jesus said, “Feed my sheep. Very truly I tell you, when you were younger you dressed yourself and went where you wanted; but when you are old you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will dress you and lead you where you do not want to go.” Jesus said this to indicate the kind of death by which Peter would glorify God. Then he said to him, “Follow me!””

(John 21:15–19, NIV)

A dramatic landscape photograph featuring a bright sun low on the horizon, creating a strong lens flare and casting a warm, golden glow over the scene. The foreground shows rugged, layered rock formations in shades of orange and brown. In the distance, a valley or canyon is visible, with a winding road and some structures. The overall atmosphere is serene and majestic.
