

Alistair Begg's Bible Flyleaf Notes

"If Jesus be God and died for me then no sacrifice that I could make for Him could ever be too great." C.T. Studd (I Corinthians 6:19,20)

"This is the man to whom I will look,' says the Lord, 'he .who is humble and contrite in spirit and trembles at my Word.'" (Isaiah 66:2)

There is no ideal place to serve God except the place in which He sets you down. (Genesis 12:1; Hebrews 11:8-10)

The narrow way was never hit upon by chance neither did a heedless man ever live a holy life. (Psalm 119:11)

Spiritual movement is ultimately more important than educational advancement. (Acts 4:13)

More spiritual progress comes on the path of failure and tears than on the road of success and laughter. (Hebrews 12)

If my prayer is meager it is because I believe it to be supplemental not fundamental. (I Thessalonians 5:17)

He who finds a wife finds what is good and receives favor from the Lord. (Proverbs 18:22)

Things of this world will no more keep out trouble of spirit than a piece of paper will stop a bullet!
(Matthew 6:33; I Peter 5:6)

You can never lead souls heavenward unless climbing yourself; you need not be very high up but you must be climbing.
(Philippians 3:16).
